The Echo

Foreword

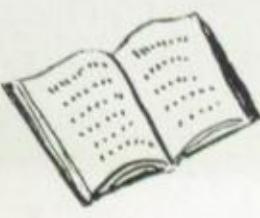

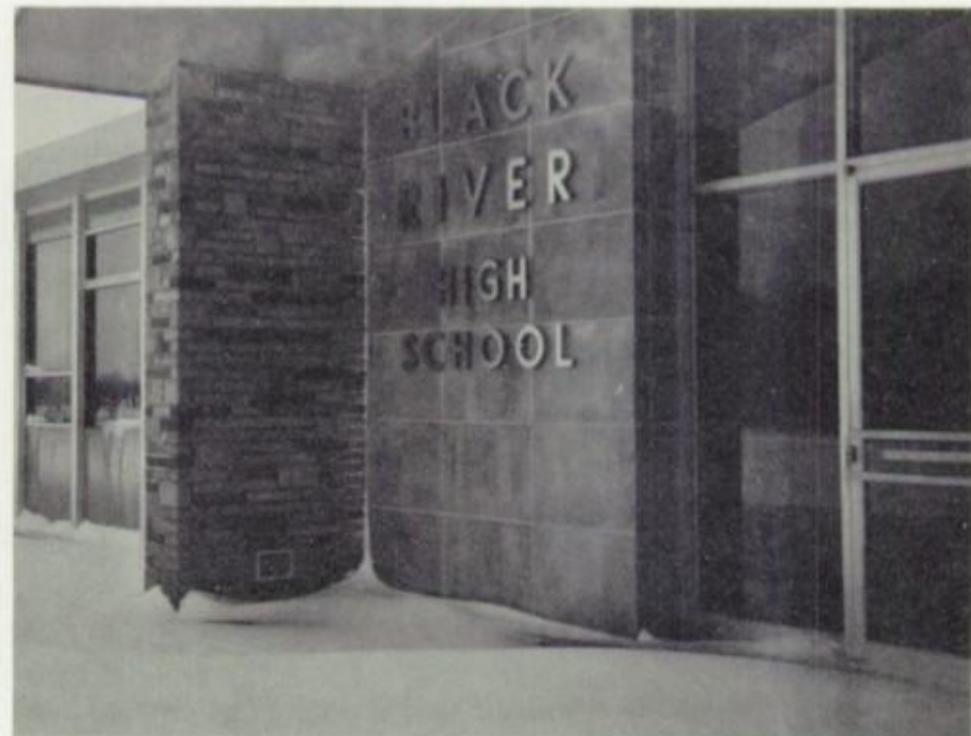

As the year comes to an end, the Black River Seniors begin to realize that they must say "good-bye" to many good friends. They must also say "good-bye" to the most important years of their lives. What they have learned at school in the past twelve years will carry them through the rest of their lives.

The 1961 Echo attempts to record some of the events of this year for all to remember. The editors wish to thank all those who have had a part in the production of this year's annual, and, on behalf of the Senior Class, to say "farewell."

Dedication

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1961, being the first class to graduate from the new Black River High School Building, wish to dedicate our annual, The Echo, to the members of the former school boards of Homer, Huntington, Spencer, and Sullivan, whose interest and unceasing efforts united five small communities of dedicated citizens into one school district.

The labors of these people plus the work of the present school board have brought about our beautiful new building. Words cannot express our gratitude for the fruits of their labor.

We are sure that as they watch Black River High School Grow, they will feel that their dreams have been fulfilled.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Black River High School do hereby bequeath the following:

To the Juniors, we leave our place in the Lunch Line.

To the Sophmores, we leave our ability to always fight at the class meetings.

To the Freshmen, we leave our class advisors.

We, the Seniors, make the following individual bequests:

I, Janet Avery, will my red hair rinse to Carnetta Blankenship.

I, Lynette Bassett, will my quiet manners to Karen Gullet.

I, John Bell, will my ability to walk 1/2 mile and catch the bus to Bill Messmore.

I, Kenny Berry, will my height to Teddy Kostecki who might need it someday.

I, Constance Billheimer, will my ability to draw things in Art Class that no one can understand to anyone who thinks he is an artist.

I, Larry Blessing, will my ability to play basketball to my brother Ronnie who might need it.

I, Rosemary Bowling, leave my typing eraser to Carol Foster.

I, Brenda Boyd, will my ability to ruin the school paper to Irene Kozub.

I, Virginia Bradley, will some of my shortness to Janice Ballou.

I, Susan Bridgett, will my ability to type with long fingernails to Nancy Jordan.

I, Susan Burkhart, will my Shorthand notes to Mrs. Dawley and hope she can read them better than I can.

I, Connie Clifford, will my problem to think of anything to will to any Junior.

I, Henry Cowhick, will my books to Roy Leininger.

I, Joan Davis, will my ability to crack gum to Mrs. Dougherty.

I, Loretta Dawson, will my position as Librarian to Judy Roice.

I, Judy Dennis, will my American Government book to Joan Dague and hope that she gets more use from it than I did.

I, Adolph Dorn, being of weak body and very unstable mind do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make a fool of myself to Jim Gott in hopes that he will have as much fun with it as I have had.

I, Elaine Forster, will my nickname back to my brother Fred.

I, Raymond Garn, will my ability to sleep in study hall to David Bowen.

I, Raymond Gast, will my ability to drive slow to Jerry Bauer.

I, Joan Heiffner, will my homecoming crown to next year's Queen.

I, Richard Heilman, will my American Government book to anyone who wants it.

I, David Howe, bequeath a slightly used football shoe to Jim D. Wolf with hopes he will get some use from it. Lots of Luck, Jim.

I, Connie Hyde, will all my teachers to the coming seniors in hopes that they have as much fun as I did.

I, John Jordan, will my accident free driving record to Roy Leininger.

I, Karen Kari, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Stoll to anyone who is fortunate enough to have her.

I, Sue Keillor, will my seat in Art Class to Steve Wandell.

I, Rose Ann Kurtz, will my braces to anyone who wants them.

I, David Leidorff, will my football equipment to Gary Wacker.

I, Mary McKean, will my speed at a typewriter to Jean Twining.

I, John McReynolds, will my high grades, good looks, and all but one of my numerous girl friends to Larry Flint.

We, Joseph Majce and Arnold Wacker, will our ability to get out of school to anyone who has initiative to take advantage of it.

I, Leslie Meininger, will my ability to hot rod to Roy Leininger.

I, Doyle Oxender, will my ability to skip the first six weeks of school to George Kish.

I, Richard Pfeiffer, will my ability to sleep in study hall to Basil Morehead.

I, Sharon Rex, will my long periods of studying and my quietness in study hall to Carl Stuart who has already caught up with me.

I, Richard Rook, will my ability to stay out of trouble to anybody who needs it.

I, Richard Saegert, will my ability to play basketball to John Regal.

I, Joyce Shepherd, will my long black hair to Ann Shorts.

I, Joan Shoulter, will my position as assistant Librarian to Ann Herrmann.

I, Linda Shultz, will my ability to play basketball to Susan Boone.

I, Philip Simcox, leave my spirit to haunt the hallways of this school forever.

I, Duane Snoddy, will all of the things willed to me in the past to Jim Botdorf.

I, Patricia Stevenson, will my nickname "Flabber Jaws" to George Kish who needs it.

I, Janet Svirk, bequeath anything I possess to anyone dumb enough to want it.

I, David Trapp, will my ability to sleep in study hall to J.H.

I, Donald VanMeter, will my respect and tradition for B. R. H. S. to the deserving oncoming Freshmen.

I, David Weyer, will and bequeath my ability to study hard to Gary Easterday.

Main Entrance

This Is Our School Life. Class Of "61"

In September of 1949, eighty-four frightened, but eager children approached the doors of Albion, Huntington, Spencer, and Sullivan Schools.

Of this group entering first grade, the following students have continued through twelve long and hard years. At Albion; Joe Majce, Sharon Rex, Philip Simcox, Duane Snoddy, Pat Stevenson, and David Trapp were under the guidance of Mrs. Helen Cupp. Later, Connie Billheimer and Susan Bridgett joined their class. Huntington's first grade class consisted of Joan Heiffner, John Jordan, and David Weyer with Mrs. Lucille Murray as their teacher. In the small community of Spencer, Janet Avery, Linda Butcher, Connie Clifford, Gary Dewar, Raymond Garn, Karen Kari, John McReynolds, Linda Shultz, and Donald Van Meter composed a pleasant group of first graders taught by Mrs. Wreatha Dickason. In another county, yet only ten miles away, in Sullivan, Mrs. Phyllis Aljeo was teaching another group destined to become members of the present senior class. This class was composed of Kenneth Berry, Larry Blessing, Susan Burkhart, Henry Cowhick, Judy Dennis, Raymond Gast, Connie Hyde, Sue Keillor, Joan Shoulter, and Leslie Meininger.

Second grade at Albion faced confusing circumstances because Mrs. Lola Hisey left during the middle of the year. We were placed most graciously in the trusty hands of Miss Margaret Sooy. Brenda Boyd was a welcomed newcomer to Mrs. Murray's second grade class at Huntington, while Miss Jane Lawrence tried to guide her subject at Spencer. Meanwhile, at Sullivan, they were divided into two groups with Mrs. Helen Workman and Mrs. Alma Livingston as their teachers. During this year Joan Davis became our newest member.

In our third year Albion was under the able supervision of Mrs. Kathryn Soka; Mrs. Hazel Koons taught the third grade at Huntington, and Mrs. Sarah Clement was the teacher at Spencer. It was in this grade that Rose Ann Kurtz joined their class. Once more Sullivan's third graders were reunited, with Mrs. Livingston taking over the procedures.

Fourth grade classes at Huntington were again fortunate to be taught by Mrs. Koons, and Albion pupils were new occupants of the Homer School Building with Mrs. Neva Lowe as our happy instructor. At the same time Mrs. Bertha Rowe's fourth grade class in Spencer, suffered growing pains namely, Richard Heilman and Richard Rook. Mrs. Cupp and Mrs. Isabelle Clouser taught two separate groups of devil-lightful fourth graders at Sullivan. It was during this year that Rosemary Bowling joined them.

Mrs. Margaret Hunt was Huntington's fifth grade supervisor and Mrs. Lowe was again teacher at Homer, while Spencer's fifth grade was taught by Mrs. Doris Kime. Sullivan fifth grade classes were still divided, under the direction of Mrs. Clouser and Mrs. Freda Baker. John Bell joined as a new student and Leslie Meininger left the class.

Homer's sixth grade teacher was Mrs. Cupp. Because of Mrs. Hunt's illness, the sixth grade class of Huntington was fortunate to have Rev. Clark, and Mrs. Jo Anne Keep as their substitute teachers for the remaining part of the year. Mr. Jack Lizotte was Spencer's director. That year the class split at its seams with the arrival of Virginia Bradley, David Leidorff, Janet Svirik, and Jerry Veverka. The sixth graders were very happy to be reunited at Sullivan, and after getting acquainted all over again, and finding a room large enough to house us, we settled down under the supervision of Mrs. Baker.

Seventh grade brought new experiences with each subject being taught by different teachers, and the changing of classes. Mr. Orlando Shilts was the homeroom teacher at Huntington and Mrs. Marian Debow was advisor at Homer. Spencer entered their seventh year with Mrs. Rosemary Stoll as director, while at Sullivan Miss Lilian Duncan was in charge. New students were Loretta Dawson, David Howe, and Doyle Oxender, and Leslie Meininger rejoined them.

Eighth grade Huntington's homeroom teacher was Mr. Shilts and the new student this year was Richard Pfeiffer. This year Huntington participated in graduating their eighth graders to Sullivan. At Homer, Mrs. Debow was again advisor. Arnold Wacker joined at this time. The enrollment remained unchanged in the eighth grade at Spencer and Mrs. Stoll again was the teacher. At the same time in Sullivan, Mr. Ronald Bowie was in charge. Lynette Bassett and Elaine Forster joined their class.

As freshmen, we all took our first big step as high school students, in which we chose the subjects for an educational basis to our different careers. In Homer, Mrs. Debow was once again supervisor and at Spencer, Mr. John Stockert was in charge. At Sullivan, Mr. Karl Prosheck was director. The graduating students of Huntington joined Sullivan's ninth grade; they were Brenda Boyd, Joan Heiffner, John Jordan, David Weyer, and Richard Pfeiffer. Mary McKean was a newcomer this year.

In the summer of 1958, in July, to be exact; the people of the small communities of Albion, Homerville, Huntington, Spencer, and Sullivan in the different counties of Ashland, Lorain, and Medina emerged into consolidation. During that summer the various students met at Homer to pick the school colors; black, gold, and white; and the team name, the Pirates. Homer sophomores were under the direction of Mr. John Kiliany, while Mrs. Stoll was in charge at Spencer, and Sullivan's homeroom teacher was Mr. Donald Wolf. It was during this year that all three classes worked together and enjoyed many fund-raising projects.

The junior year at Homer was an eventful one for everyone. With Mr. Ray Massey as advisor, class rings were ordered which officially made everyone feel like juniors. "Happy Daze" was presented, and the juniors were also the host of the Junior-Senior Prom. Adolph Dorn was a newcomer of our class.

Spencer's junior year was under the guidance of Mrs. Stoll. Class rings were received and the class play was called "Raggedy Nan." They also were the hosts at their Junior-Senior Prom.

Sullivan juniors were glad to still be under the leadership of Mr. Wolf. With his able assistance the group tried their talent at acting, and successfully presented their class play, "A Feudin'O'r Yonder." Class rings were also received. They were also hosts at the Sullivan's Junior-Senior Prom, their theme being "The Gay 90's." With music being presented by David Rose's Orchestra. Dick Seagart joined the class this year. New friends were made at basketball games when the three classes joined forces, and took over the selling of refreshments.

At last, the anticipated moment had arrived! Our dream had come true! Consolidation! To be as one Class! Our Senior year! A new building! New faces! New friends! New challenges to meet and conquer!

Everything was new, strange and bewildering at first, we were divided into two homerooms under the able supervision and guidance of Mrs. Emma Dougherty and Mr. Donald Wolf. Mr. Donald Larabee assisted us as our class advisor. With the combined efforts of new talents, we edited the annual; "The Echo," which was one of our major achievements. We gave dances, sold refreshments at football games, and served at various banquets and also took a second curtain call on the brand-new stage for our senior class play to raise funds for our much wanted class trip. We, as a class, chose our motto, flower, class color, color of robes, and our invitations.

At the end of the school year the class trip is an extra reward, but the real climax of our school life is that "Golden" night of graduation.

We from Homer, Huntington, Spencer, and Sullivan feel that we have gained much through consolidation and are proud to be the first graduating class of the new Black River High School Building. We appreciate the hard work and the patience of our teachers and supervisors and we hope to set our goals so high that even if we do not reach the top, we shall not be far from it.

Senior Class Prophecy

The year is 1971 and that famous newspaper team of Daugherty and Wolf have started a new column in their New York Times called, "Failures Yesterday--Successes Today." They had in mind that fabulous Class of '61 when they wrote this column. We shall now take a glimpse into their little column to see what's happening to the members of that Class of '61.

JANET AVERY, a noted chemist, has recently discovered a now rare earth element. She named it Avererium after her own brilliant self. LYN BASSETT has now taken Julie London's place as the Marlboro girl. This new job is due to the changing of Junie's voice. KENNY BERRY has become Yogi Bear's new assistant, "Booboo" because he's so much like the average type boy. CONNIE BILLHEIMER has just been appointed as Secretary of State after her success as the secretary to the Class of '61. LARRY BLESSING is the new coach of the Harlem Globe Squatters, and ROSE BOWLING is the new chief water-woman for the Squatters. BRENDA BOYD has gone into hibernation in the Catskills. She states that the annual and the school paper will go out in time. She is also writing a novel entitled What Makes Commercial Teachers Tick? VIRGINIA BRADLEY now owns and operates a factory that manufactures stilts of all sizes. The only trouble she has is getting up on them. SUSAN BRIDGETT, after divorcing fifteen husbands, has started her own love-lorn column in the "Times" entitled "Dear Heartbroken Susan." SUSAN BURKHART has made her fame as an auctioneer on her husband's television program, "You can't out-talk her!" CONNIE CLIFFORD has started her own beauty salon with the slogan "Only her hairdresser knows." HENRY COWHICK is the owner of a large rodent ranch near Sullivan. He just hopes they don't rat out on him. JOAN DAVIS, who is the president of Wrigley's Chewing Gum factory, now owns, and operates her own riding academy in Sullivan. LORETTA DAWSON is now a model with Mad Magazine. She states that the work is absolutely Mad, Mad, Mad! JUDY DENNIS, our national birdwatcher has written a book entitled, Twelve Easy Lessons in Bird-Watching. GARY DEWAR, the electrician of the year, has had many shocking experiences since he left Black River. ADOLPH DORN, an engineer, is now remodeling the great Khufu Pyramid in Egypt. ELAINE FORSTER is now the owner and operator of the Fred's Food Basket. Her specialty at the food basket is hot potato valcano. RAY GARN is now the congressman from the 17th District and has just introduced a bill to halt all Senior Government Classes. The only trouble is that this bill is just ten years too late. RAY GAST, world's champion pool player, has won the safe-driving award. RICHARD HEILMAN has just made fame in Paris with his "Whistler's Brother" painting. DAVE HOWE has won the award as best mechanic of the year with his prize-winning "B-Gasser." He is assisted by JOAN HEIFFNER as his chief numer-one grease-monkey. CONNIE HYDE has become the star vocalist with the Majce's Ace's band. The leader of the terrific Ace, band, who also plays 1st trumpet, is JOE MAJCE. JOHN JORDAN, who just set up a sheep-ranch on the campus of Ohio State, has married another sheepherder and with their three kids they have a "bleating" good time. KAREN KARI has just invented a device to keep from having fouls called on her (Miss Kari is the star center on the Globe Squatters.)

SUE KEILLOR, the world's judo star, has just cracked up in more ways than one. ROSE ANN KURTZ is now the feature attraction on the Mickey Mouse series, our own little Mouse-kateer. DAVID LEIDORFF, star tackle for the Leidorff Little Lugheads, is still winning those trophies. MARY McKEAN finally hooked Ken. It took ten years to plan the attack, but success at last. JOHN McREYNOLDS has been assigned on as head photographer of the Donald Larabee School of Dance. The dancers have one big complaint about John, he's always taking pictures without a warning. LESLIE MEININGER has found a new formula to take the curl out of his hair---starch. DOYLE OXENDER has started his own still in his basement and says, "It's just like Grandma used to make." DICK PFEIFFER, between naps, pitched the 342nd no-hit game for the Cleveland Squaws. He states that he just can't get warmed up or wake-up enough or he would have pitched more. SHARON REX is now the chief sky-writer for the Paratroopers in the U. S. Army. She has just written a song entitled "Love Letters in the Sky." RICHARD ROOK has just left for another safari to darkest Africa where he plans to visit his old friends the Mu-Mu's. He informs us through his letters that the favorite food over in Africa is "People and Cheeze on Rye." RICHARD SAEGERT, Red Barbor the second, has broken the filibuster record with 9 days, 8 hours, and 52 minutes. He would only give one comment after his filibuster, "Water Please!" JOYCE SHEPHERD now runs her own beauty shop in downtown Albion. She has just bought a new machine that removes scalps to use in her shop. JOAN SHOULTER has finally snagged the right one and lives happily in Polk with 12 kids and her mother-in-law. LINDA SHULTZ now runs her own butcher shop in her home-town, but plans to retire next month and move to the Shultz-Wood Estates on the east side of Spencer. PHILIP SIMCOX, a physics prof at Kent, has developed a sleeping pill that makes you sleep with your eyes open. He says it comes in very handy during some of the lectures he gives. DUANE SNODDY, the millionaire playboy, has left his old home-state of Ohio to become the replacement for Tab Hunter on the Tab Hunter series. PAT STEVENSON is now the head of the music department at good old B.R.H.S. She is assisted by Mrs. Foor at the piano, and Mr. Root is the handyman whenever she needs an errand run. JANET SVIRIK, professor of pyschology at Princeton, is having the time of her middle-age life, and what female wouldn't at an all-male school? DAVID TRAPP is now the proud owner of the Trapp's Trucking Lines. He is also the proud owner of four sets of twins and three sets of triplets. DON VAN METER stars in an outdoor series on television called "An Afternoon with Don." JERRY VEVERKA has just purchased Dragstrip 42 for his kids to ride their tricycles on. ARNOLD WACKER has just given up his title "The Wolf of Las Vegas" so he can settle down in Alaska, and start his own dog team to race in the Olympics. DAVID WEYER has his own night club in Huntington called Froggie's Hide-A-Way.

It looks as though the Daugherty and Wolf team has another successful column, but of course it couldn't be anything else but a success when you have such a brilliant, hard-working, lovingly, and wonderful group as the Class of '61 to work with.

Black River Class Poem

Janet Avery is at the head of the class,
At making friends she is very fast.
A member of the FTA,
Teaching will be her profession someday.

Lyn Bassett a quiet and coy girl,
Has sent many heart's for a twirl.
Home-ec is her favorite class,
Her good cooking makes her pass.

John Bell who is quiet and slow,
To Black River he does go.
True to his class he will always be,
A friend of both you and me.

Kenny Berry the shortest of our guys,
Makes up for this by being wise.
He makes a hit in every class,
And catches the eye of every lass.

Connie Billheimer, secretary this year,
Has a grin that goes from ear-to-ear.
In class she is rated high,
Once you meet her you'll know why.

Larry Blessing, president of our class,
Is always seen with a blond-haired lass.
In sports he is always there,
Usually getting in the coaches hair!

Rosie Bowling our gal-on-the-go,
In school work her grades are never low.
Larry is her steady beau,
This is a fact that we all know.

Brenda Boyd is really a joy,
And she has conquered many a boy.
The editor of the paper we all know,
In basketball she's quite a foe.

Virginia Bradley the smallest of all,
During school she is having a ball.
Some of her tricks are pretty tough,
But we don't mind that kind of stuff.

Susan Bridgett with hair so long,
In our class she does belong.
An old maid is what she wants to be,
Boy's are her pastime, as you can see.

Susan Burkhart is a chatty lass,
She's one of the nicest in our class.
She twirls a baton along with the band.
One of the best majorettes in the land.

Connie Clifford with a blond hair-do,
Keeps herself looking fresh and new.
She likes to drive a car around,
And then buy clothes in town after town.

Henry Cowhick wants to please,
Most of the people that he sees.
He has been blessed with a certain name,
Since this, life just isn't the same.

Joan Davis who resides on a farm,
Has Something that is called charm.
Being tall she found was dandy,
In Basketball it comes in handy.

Loretta Dawson with big brown eyes,
At some things she is very wise.
In FBI she wants to work,
At this job she will never shirk.

Judy Dennis with a very high voice,
Says that nursing is her choice.
Judy has acquired a certain name,
It's Birdie, but she's still the same.

Gary Dewar is a quiet boy,
But when you know him he's quite a joy.
He's really got a lot on the ball,
Some day he might surprise us all.

Adolph Dorn the brain of our class,
A good time he will never pass.
Two pair of specks he does wear,
The only things he will not share.

Elaine Forster Better known as Fred,
Has nothing in her life to dread.
In the kitchen she is tops,
But hates to clean her pans and pots.

Raymond Garn in football did play,
'Till he got racked up on a cold day.
In the hospital he found a hobby,
Watching pretty nurses in the lobby.

Raymond Gast also known as Fidget,
His shortness resembles that of a midget.
Some sports he thinks are very cool,
But his favorite one is playing pool.

Joan Heiffner our football queen,
In David's eyes she is supreme.
A secretary is what she wants to be,
Then marry and raise a family.

With the Seniors he'll stay all the while.
He says his favorite class is art,
And from that he will never part.

Dave Howe our football star,
Can always be found near and far.
Carrying the ball you will always find,
Dave on the field with Joan in mind.

Connie Hyde with voice so sweet,
Is always found dressing oh so neat.
To college she is onward bound,
A truer friend can never be found.

John Jordan has won many prizes,
All colors, shapes, and sizes.
Sheep are his pride and joy,
Nothing gets past this smart boy.

Karen Kari, Enstein the third,
Flutters through school like a little bird.
In Phys. Ed. she always scores high,
Why she's not fouled we wonder why.

Sue Keillor with her flair for art,
Made use of her talents from the start,
She goes around from day-to-day,
Being a clown in her own special way.

Rose Ann Kurtz with twinkling eyes,
In her schoolwork she really tries.
In Mixed Chorus she does sing,
Let's face it, we have another Bing.

David Leidorff big and stout,
Goes through life without a pout.
He likes to drive his car with glee,
But he isn't alone, as you can see.

Mary McKean with a ring on her hand,
Is very fond of a certain young man.
In her life there is a big aim,
To get out of school and change her name.

John McReynolds and his girl,
Go out in his car for a whirl.
He's quiet and reserved,
But look out when he gets perturbed.

Joe Majce with trumpet-in hand,
Can be found playing in the BRHS band.
Tall, dark, and handsome are his traits,
It's really not traits--it's just bait!!

Leslie Meininger with coal-black hair,
Has it slicked down with great care.
Cars are second to his one-and-only,
Without these his life would be lonely.

Doyle Oxender with hair of white,
Works all day and dates at night.
To his girls's he usually goes,
Some moonlight night he will propose.

Richard Pfeiffer is no square,
In some sports he plays quite fair.
Government class he thinks is neat,
Cause in this class he loves to sleep.

Sharon Rex on the cheerleading team,
Does some cheers that are on the beam.
She worked on the annual oh so hard,
This girl in our eyes is quite a card.

Richard Rook who is full of fun,
Can be seen with his special one.
To his classes he does go,
Telling jokes and stealing the show.

Richard Saegert who thinks he's tough,
Runs in the halls saying, "I'm rough!"
This doesn't scare us one bit,
We just duck so we don't get hit.

Joyce Shepherd whose new to the class,
Has turned out to be a friendly lass.
Adding to our group she's lots of fun,
We're glad she's in the Class of '61

Joan Shoulter is fond of a certain guy,
There is no reason to wonder why.
Her ambition she does seldom tell,
But whatever it is she will do well.

Linda Shultz the all-American girl,
Really is a special pearl.
In her classes she is up to par,
If she keeps it up she'll go far.

Philip Simcox has a voice so deep,
It keeps you on the edge of your seat.
To college this lad wants to go,
Then to success we all know.

Duane Snoddy is our man,
He tries to please the best he can.
He's always nice to be around,
A nicer friend will never be found.

Pat Stevenson on her horn does blow,
Music is something she does know.
A teacher is what she will be,
And teach the kids the Do-re-me's

Janet Svirik is tall and slim,
Keeps her clothes so very trim.
In algebra she is a whiz,
Such a smart student this girl is.

David Trapp will be true,
To his classmates when we get through,
He thinks law class can't be beat,
Come 12:30, he yells, "Let's eat!"

Don Van Meter the out-door type,
Goes through life without a gripe.
His blond hair does a funny way,
It has its curl, and just won't lay.

Jerry Veverka from Spencer did come,
To join the Seniors for some fun.
He's almost on the bottom of the list,
But he's never bothered by this.

Arnold Wacker and his girl Marge,
Tell us jokes that give us a charge.
In FFA he is always there,
Pitching in and doing his share.

Frog is David Weyer's nickname,
With this he shall acquire fame.
A very earnest and studious boy,
To know him is a tremendous joy.

MR. RICHARD HEROLD

The Spencer and Homer junior bands are under the direction of Mr. Louis Root and the Sullivan junior band is under the direction of Mr. Richard Herold. During this year they have worked hard performing at P.T.A. meetings, band booster meetings, and some members participated in a music contest.

A few of our older members are looking forward to being in the senior marching band next year.
